

Resources for Financial Caregivers

ORGANIZATION	RESOURCES PROVIDED/ WHAT YOU CAN DO	CONTACT INFORMATION
AARP	Information about financial caregiving	www.aarp.org/relationships/caregiving 888.687.2277
Administration for Community Living	Information on services for older persons and adults with disabilities	www.acl.gov 202.401.4634
Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) / Office of Older Americans	Information for financial caregivers	www.consumerfinance.gov/older-americans 855.411.2372
Eldercare Locator	Access to local services for seniors, their families and caregivers	www.eldercare.acl.gov 800.677.1116
National Adult Protective Services Association	Provides elder abuse reporting contacts in every state, an overview of Adult Protective Services' responsibility to investigate elder abuse and help its victims, plus information on financial exploitation of the elderly	www.napsa-now.org/aps-program-list/ 202.370.6292
National Center on Elder Abuse	Information about elder abuse and access to intervention and support services for seniors	www.ncea.acl.gov
National Council on Aging	Comprehensive, free online service assisting older adults in finding work, cutting spending, reducing debt and using their home equity; assistance in identifying benefits; and financial education for budgeting, avoiding scams, applying for benefits and managing prepaid debit cards	www.economiccheckup.org www.benefitscheckup.org www.ncoa.org/economic-security/money-management/budgeting/savvy-saving-seniors-financial-education
Social Security Administration	Information about representative payees and a resource for completing a representative payee report online	www.ssa.gov/payee/ 800.772.1213
U.S. Department of Justice	Comprehensive information on elder financial exploitation	www.justice.gov/elderjustice/financial
U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs	Information for retirement payees	www.benefits.va.gov/fiduciary
Women's Institute for a Secure Retirement (WISER)	Financial steps for caregivers	www.wiserwomen.org/category/resources/caregiving-resources